

RALLY CLIMAXES BOYCOTT
—The public school boycott, is climaxed by a huge rally at the Board of Education headquarters in Brooklyn.

More than 100 policemen were assigned to this downtown Brooklyn area. The peaceful anti-segregation boycott was more successful than leaders had predicted with over one-third of the city's million public school students boycotting schools. (UPI PHOTO)

COORDINATOR — Bayard Rustin, prime organizer of the 500,000 March on Washington last summer, was the director of the February 3 citywide boycott of the public schools. Rev. Milton A. Galamison, president of the Citywide Committee For Integrated Schools, which is organizing the boycott said: "Because of Rustin's role in the March On Washington, in which all of the civil rights and many liberal, labor and religious groups participated, his work on the boycott is considered symbolic of the broad support the action is receiving."
